

Refugee and displaced scientists initiative
Launch Workshop Agenda
March-April 2021

Date and times

Day 1	30 March	14.00 - 17.30 CET
Day 2	1 April	14.00 - 17.30 CET
Day 3	12 April	15.00 - 16.00 CET (follow up call: 1 hour)

Objective and Outcomes

The objective of this workshop is to officially launch the refugee and displaced initiative, moving from brainstorming and planning to putting structures in place and implementing activities.

Intended outcomes from the workshop include:

1. Interim network structure in-place and functional
2. Campaign ready to launch and advocacy plan finalized
3. Declaration text agreed and ready to "go to print"
4. Strategic framework agreed and ready to implement
5. Logo and name selected
6. Refugee and displaced scientists engagement outlined
7. Outreach plan agreed (to include geographic and gender)
8. Initial findings of mapping study shared?
9. Finalization of working definitions?
10. Specific actions that participants can take to be involved

Structure

The workshop will be spread over a couple weeks, with the majority of it taking place over two half-days (3.5 hours) meetings followed by a one hour call on the third day. This will allow for the same big chunks of time for each working group to share progress as well as time to bring all of it together in a final session.
